Why Portland College needs this role

Portland College is a vibrant national college for people with a wide range of disabilities and associated learning difficulties. The College has a successful Education department (OfSTED Outstanding). The College recognises the importance of pastoral care in supporting learners in a holistic manner to reach their potential as well as offering appropriate stretch and challenge and a clear line of communication for all involved in a learners programme. The College is working to provide excellence in provision and the role of the Progression Tutor is critical to achieving this goal.

What you will be doing

- Lead individual study programmes for a caseload of learners, including timely and accurate monitoring of learner progress to provide a one stop shop cohesive approach that incorporates all elements of the learner using agreed methods and formats as stated in the Learning and Teaching Manual.
- Work with the IAGT team to ensure best practice approaches to learners entering and exiting the provision, completion of PCRs and employment and independence related workshops and guidance, parent/carers and employer involvement activities
- Work with Multi-disciplinary staff and teams to ensure effective wrap around support and intervention, including IAGT, PBS, SLT, AAC, OT, PT and Coach Mentors with specific foci on EHC planned outcomes and learner journeys
- Liaise with staff, parent/carers, employers and external agencies using a variety of communication mediums to ensure a consistent and cohesive approach to communicating all aspects of a learner's programme and providing accurate and timely details on their progress and next steps using agreed formats
- Develop, support and inspire good and outstanding delivery from tutors to support the skills required in employment and general living skills from Pre-entry to Level 3 and challenge less than good delivery using College frameworks.
- Guide the choice of appropriate qualifications/RARPA targets in Education from Entry 1 to Level 3 appropriate for EHC planned outcomes and starting points with support from the Quality and Exams Assistant to ensure learners achieving their planned destinations and aspirations.
- Deliver tutorials at individual and group level, to ensure appropriate support is given to your caseload of learners, including advocacy, building resilience, intervention for less than expected progress and providing appropriate stretch and challenge
